Yukon Mint Announces Deadline Extension for the First Gold Coin Contest

Whitehorse, Yukon, September 5th, 2017: Yukon Mint Corporation (Yukon Mint) would like to announce that the Company has extended the deadline, at the request of the Kaska Nation, for the first Yukon gold coin design contest 'My Kaska Nation' artist submissions to November 1st, 2017. The contest winner announcement will now take place on November 30th, 2017. This extension allows for additional time for the artists to submit their designs and will ensure that everyone who wants to participate can do so. The original announcement was made on May 15th, 2017.

Anyone who would like further information on the contest information and rules is asked to visit www.yukonmint.com.

The story of Yukon gold coins starts with the Yukon Mint™.

The Yukon Mint™ is focused on creating gold coins that will be Yukon in almost every aspect, from raw material to design. The Yukon Mint™ has launched its inaugural coin design contest, My Kaska Nation, to create its first Yukon gold coin. The coin design contest is open to all Kaska citizens and will include gold from Golden Predator's 3 Aces Project located in the Kaska Nation. The gold coin production will follow selection of the winning design on November 30, 2017, and will include local profit sharing from the sales of the gold coins.

The Yukon Mint™ works in partnership with First Nation and other governments, corporations and organizations to ensure local communities benefit from Yukon mining and exploration projects. The Yukon Mint™ is a wholly owned subsidiary of Golden Predator Mining Corp.
